

Software Developer

INTRODUCTION

He is a Software Developer at Dynaworx (Pty) Ltd South Africa. This outline presents his skills, qualifications and achievements in driving client-focused solutions. His dedication in software development has over years evolved from a junior to a highly skilled professional. He is a self-starter and fast learner. Versatile skill set with experience in customer service, requirements gathering, planning and documentation. He has recognized skills in solution development, database administration and integration.

He is a good team player and has contributed extensively in software development from Java to .Net. He has participated in both academic and professional projects. He has been part of winning teams providing solutions for both the public and the private sectors. He has experience in Enterprise Content Management (ECM) systems, Business Intelligence systems and general software applications including desktop, mobile and web applications. He has good knowledge of different development platforms, application servers and database servers. He constantly contributes to the IT world by participating and actively taking part in different software development blogs and other communities. His skill set is guaranteed to take any organization to the next level. His problem-solving skills, quick thinking and goal-driven mind make him one of the best professionals.

He has strong verbally and written communications. He can speak and interact confidently in Zulu and English. His general professional etiquette is of a high level and he keeps improving over time. He is always striving to be the best. He has good administration skills and can smoothly make use of Microsoft products.

Thank you for the opportunity!

Presented by Debi Jackman at Dynaworx

debij@dynaworx.co.za

083 293 8813